Pavilion Reservations

1. The pavilion can be reserved by calling Rick Miller at 216-255-0174. So that all homeowners have an opportunity to use the pavilion, you will only be allowed to reserve the pavilion for one day.
2. A deposit of $50.00 is required within 48 hours of your reservation. A check made payable to Chandler Commons delivered to Rick Miller (pavilion manager) at 14539 Trenton Avenue will confirm your reservation. Please don't put this form and check in the mailbox. Should your deposit not be received 30 days prior to your event, the date will be open for others. Your deposit check will not be cashed by Chandler Commons unless the pavilion is not cleaned after its use in accordance with these rules.
3. Please clean the pavilion thoroughly after using it. This includes the grills and tables. The floor must be swept. Also, remove all decorations including tacks, staples, etc.
4. Garbage must be bagged and taken home by the user for pick up by local garbage collection at the user's home. The city does not pick up garbage from the pavilion. Garbage is not to be placed at the Pool.
5. Your guests may use the swimming pool, but must pay a $2.00 guest fee. Please check with the lifeguards upon arrival and pay the guest fee in advance.
6. The number of guests at the pavilion should not exceed 100.
7. You are allowed to use the pavilion for the entire day you reserve it until 10:00 pm. After dusk, please be considerate of the neighbors adjoining the recreation area.
8. You have the use of the volleyball pit and baseball diamond. Use is limited to 2 hours if other homeowners also desire to use it.
9. After the cleanliness of the pavilion has been verified, your deposit check will be destroyed. Checks will not be returned.
